SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

William Robinson, Vice President; Karen Pybus, Secretary-Treasurer;
Harry Wilkinson, President.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Mrs. Medaglia's beads broke.

We caught Mr. Keegan "off his rocker."

Mr. Forgetta had lipstick on his collar.

Miss Wharton blew her nose in the closet.

Everyone in French 3-x wore paperclips.

Mrs. Saulnier was Miss Torrisi.

There wasn't any school paper.

Folksinging wasn't popular.

There was only one cafeteria.

There wasn't any Pep Club.

English 4 didn't have to write papers.

Mr. Powers taught history.

When everyone congregated in Room 29.

Culottes were banned.

Homeroom was quiet.

We had assemblies.

Everyone was applying to college.

Twisting was declared immoral.

There were only two editors of the yearbook.

Jackie wore her lab. apron to English.

They didn't serve lunches in the cafeteria.

Mr. Donovan was Assistant Principal.

The girl's basketball team didn't win.

Harry wasn't president (?).

Brenda was orchid girl.

History classes studied the Civil war.

We rode our bikes to school.

The French classes sang Christmas Carols while parading through the corridors.

Mr. Keegan collected for the Red Cross in English 2-1.

Charlie got his finger caught in a desk in history class.

The Beatles hit N.A.H.S.

We could loiter.

Barb Fisher made peanut brittle for a chem. lab. experiment.

Skirts had to be below the knees.

Doc Thomson taught English and crafts.

Everyone didn't yell "We want Charlie."

Miss Wharton "kicked the bucket."

We had a mock Presidential election.

The auditorium was a study hall.

The library wasn't a study hall.

There were more teachers than rooms.

"But Miss Cook, we've already covered this chapter."

"But I thought you knew how to run it!"

"Who spiked the oatmeal?"

"Tra la la la Susie!"

"Walt Whitman? He was not!"

"Everyone who knows what I'm talking about please look up."

"Now all we need is a model."

"On your mark, get ready . . ."

"One more and I'll have the record."

"zxcvnm . . . whoops, wrong row!"

"What's your last request . . .?"

"So now that we're totally confused . . ."

"Altitude two feet, flap harder, girls!"

These grass skirts will never last the season.

"The one who finds the button first wins."

"Give me that old soft shoe."

"All this and a flower too?"

"But I thought you brought the Christmas presents."

"Keep to the right except when making a pass."

"Now that you have proven two and two are four, let's try something harder."

"We will bury you!"

"And I thought this was going to be fun!"

Activities

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

First row: Donna Bellorado, Susan Zimny, Brenda Swithenbank, Nancy Shepherd, (Secretary-Treasurer), Patricia Newcomb, Claire Shola, Joanne Coughlin, Barbara Hanlon, Gael Curcio.

The National Honor Society, with its qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, is always read to assist the student body. Several of the Honor Society members have tutored fellow pupils. The Society also sponsored a Christmas dance and the school book fair, the proceeds of which will be used for an award to a deserving member of the senior class.

The annual induction ceremony was held in early December, at which time eleven new members were admitted. Other Honor Society activities have included a sectional meeting for the Lawrence-Lowell District held in Wilmington and attended by the officers, and an Eastern Massachusetts conference, held in Natick, the object of which was to establish a State Chapter of the National Honor Society.

The Honor Society advisor is Miss Margaret Donlan. The officers are Marc Garnic, president; Robert Parker, vice-president; and Nancy Shepard, secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The first task undertaken by the Student Council is to complete the social calendar for the school year.

The remainder of the year is spent by the members engaging in various projects, and means of improvement for our school and its student body. Among these activities are patrolling the cafeteria, sponsoring the election of the Football Queen, conducting a scholarship drive preceded by "Tag Day," and attending the annual Student Council convention.

By far the greatest project undertaken by the Student Council is the Scholarship Drive. This drive, along with "Tag Day," is conducted to acquire funds to enable the Student Council to award scholarships to meriting seniors. With the co-operation of the student body, the faculty, and the community, the drive becomes a greater success each year.

The officers of the Student Council have done an outstanding job in leading the members toward success in their projects.

The Student Council's primary function is to act as an intermediary between the students and the faculty. The problems of both are discussed and remedied at the monthly meetings.

THE KNIGHT

In October, plans for the 1964 Knight were begun. At that time, more than 88 students met to make publication plans. These students were grouped according to their chief interests, into eight divisions, seven of which are headed by a managing editor. The various divisions are under the direction of the Executive and Policy Staff, made up of four seniors and one junior; under this organization, they are the editors-in-chief.

Particular emphasis was placed on the senior section, the main objective being to produce longer write-ups and larger pictures. Other highlights of this year's Knight are the Spirit of N.A.H.S. throughout the senior pages, and a page, "In Memoriam," to our late President.

The staff, composed of more members than ever before, has given liberally of their time and effort. Many hours of work have been devoted to soliciting ads, planning an extensive photographic survey of student life, writing articles, preparing art work, stimulating sales of the book, maintaining a financial record, and doing a considerable volume of typing.

Special thanks go to the managing editors of each of the various staffs; to the editors-in-chief, Donna Bishop, Jacqueline Dyer, Beverly Giard, Kathleen Hearty, and Mary Stork; and to Mr. Ralph Taylor, faculty advisor, whose many hours of work and invaluable guidance have resulted in one of the finest yearbooks yet produced.

THE SQUIRE

The Squire, the bi-monthly North Andover High School student publication, enjoyed a very successful year. This was the Squire's first season. There had been no student publication for a period of three years; the last publication was a literary magazine. The Squire is a newspaper giving current news and also incorporating literary articles.

MATH CLUB

Kent VanHeukelom, Larry Boothman, Linda Kamal, Jane Pulverenti, Patricia Hughes, Judith Corello, Barbara McCann, Claire Shola, Eleanor Roche, Paula Wirtz, Mr. Forgetta, (Advisor). First row: Carol Smolak, Patricia Winters, Randa Taylor, Judith Dolan, Marc Garnick, (Vice-president); David Simon, (President); Alfred Guerrero, (Secretary-Treasurer); Beverly Giard, Ruth Moynihan, Carol Giarrusso, Sheryl Locke.

The Mathematics Club, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Lynch and Mr. Arthur Forgetta, as a member of the Eastern Massachusetts Mathematical League, participated in monthly contests with other member schools.

The Club sponsors an annual banquet, where officers for the coming year are chosen. The officers for the 1963-1964 season were David Simon, president; Al Guererra, secretary-treasurer; and Marc Garnic, vice-president.

The Club also holds a dance which provides the needed funds to pay for awards and League dues. This year the dance featured local folksingers.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, under the guidance of Mr. Thomas Regan, participated in the annual science fair, which was held March 17, 1964.

All members displayed their projects in competition for awards and honorable mention. The winners of the school fair then participated in the Technorama VIII at Lowell Technological Institute for the State Science Fair.

The students projects were judged on the basis of Science Knowledge, Craftsmanship, Originality, and Neatness. The various projects were based upon knowledge in many fields of study. The work of each member was of the highest standards, the most important element being the amount of time and study involved in each.

The underlying aim of the Science Club is to give its members an opportunity to work in the fields they can do best. They must be constructive in studying materials, recording experiences, and arriving at conclusions.

The participant derives great benefits from the educational experiences received.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Perhaps one of the most functional clubs in the high school this year was the Photography Club. Under the competent and devoted guidance of Mr. John Robinson, the faculty advisor, the organization made profitable gains in learning the techniques of the art of photography.

Unfortunately, the activities of the group were minimized due to technical difficulties with the camera. Mr. Robinson used his own camera while the club's was in repair.

The Photography Club served two especially useful functions. Not only did they supply several candid shots of school activities for the 1964 Knight; they also submitted many useful and professional-like pictures to the Eagle-Tribune.

The Club's candidate members are given assignments in order to qualify for membership. Those chosen are selected on the basis of their interest in photography, their respect for photographic equipment, and the quality of their trial work.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Back row: Al Guerrera, Alan Twombly, Richard Jensen, Robert Kawash, Paul Wood, John Dufresne, Joseph Thompson, Anthony Perrone, Peter Osgood, Stephen Gioia, Sebastian Iacano. Fifth row: Pamela Winters, Janyce Summers, Ellen Williams, Randa Taylor, Beverly Giard, Donna Dolan, Robert White, Richard Gallagher, William Phelan, Anthony Troia, Nancy Miller, Phyllis Watson, Donna Houghton, Patricia Shea, Janet Olpp. Fourth row: Beth Maker, Jean Culver, Diane Stabile, Joan Bevins, Mary Margaret Minahan, Carole Belben, Jane Ippolito, Nancy Pulverenti, Joyce Dewhurst, Nancy Furness, Gloria Beau-lieu, Carol Chepulis, Joyce Warshol, Donna Dane, Regina Underwood, Jane Garvin. Third row: Helen Barron, Sandra Turcotte, Elizabeth Evans, Joyce Copeland, Eileen Smolack, Antoinette Dehullu, Geraldine Swabrick, Janet Ippolito, Ellen

Under the direction of James McDonald, faculty advisor, the Dramatic Club enjoyed a very successful year.

At Christmas time, a very unusual and educational production was presented by the members. It consisted of a play and reading showing the Christian observance, and a play and reading showing the Jewish observance, Hanukkah.

The Club's next undertaking, the Valentine's Day Dance, was thoroughly enjoyed by all that attended. Patricia Leary was crowned Valentine Queen from eight class-voted candidates.

The major production of the year was the school play entitled "If a Man Answers," which, thanks to the hard work and guidance of Mr. McDonald, and the cooperation of the cast and committee, was a big success.

The North Andover High School Band participated in many school events this year. It put on a colorful half-time display and provided musical selections during all of the football games. The members played at all of the home basketball games. They also played at one of the home wrestling meets.

Besides taking part in these school events, the band marched in the North Andover Santa Claus Parade and the Memorial Day Parade. They were scheduled to march in the Veteran's Day Parade also, but it was cancelled because of rain. The band did participate in the program held in the Veteran's Memorial Auditorium, however. They also played at the Second Annual Carol Sing in front of the town offices.

With the money they made from their dance, the band purchased new drums this year. These were certainly needed, and added much to the fine sound of the band.

On May 8-9, the band members participated in an "Exchange Concert" with the Burlington High School band. This was an entirely new experience. On one night the two bands played in North Andover, and on the next night they performed in Burlington. At each concert the bands played separately and together. Much practice, planning, and patience went to make this a highly successful event.

Mr. Kimmel, the band's director, added many new pieces to the band's repertoire. Some of the pieces were classical and semi-classical, and were used with great success at such events as the spring concert. The band members also learned numerous popular songs which contributed a great deal to the spirit of the spectators at the athletic events.

CHEERLEADERS

During the year, the cheerleaders worked hard to add pep and to boost school spirit at all football and basketball games. They also led cheers at two spirited rallies during the football season.

In addition, they sponsored their annual dance in the high school gym.

The girls also attended a Cheerleader's Clinic held at Andover High School in which they exhibited some of their own cheers and learned new ones.

They also entered competition with cheerleaders from eleven other schools in the area during March.

The substitutes this year were Donna Bellorado, Cathy Crane, Lita Koper, and Linda Shea. They can be given credit for organization of the recently-formed pep club.

MAJORETTES

Betsy McClung, Dolores Palmieri, Joann Andrukaitis, Mae Annis, Helene Robinson, Sandra Brown, Christine Phaneuf (Head Majorette).

The Majorettes, composed of nine members, Chris Phaneuf, Helen Robinton, Betsy McClung, Sandy Brown, Linda Duffy, May Annis, Jo Ann Andrukaitis, Dolores Palmieri, and Marita Butterfield, were a colorful addition to the band this past year.

Under the excellent direction of Milton Kimmel and the able leadership of Chris Phaneuf, their routines displayed originality and precision, which reflected the long hours and conscientious practice which the group undertook to do honor to their school.

For the annual Thanksgiving game they joined with the cheerleaders to present their version of the well known song "Do-Re-Me."

They also participated in the Santa Claus Parade, Memorial Day Parade, and the Veterans' Day Parade.

In all, they tried and did their very best to live up to the example set by those who were Majorettes last year, and wish success to those who are fortunate enough to participate as Majorettes in the years to come.

CHORUS

The North Andover High School Chorus this year consisted of sixty members. The chorus sang at the North Andover Board of Trade Sponsored Community Christmas Broadcast over radio station WLLH, and the major portion of a Spring Choral Concert.

We had three students audition for the New England Solo and Ensemble Festival held at Boston University, and all three received "one" or "two" ratings. They were Susan Detora, Ruth Ann Moynihan, and Alana Walker. We were represented at the New England Music Concert Festival at Plainville, Conn. by the above students, and also by Diane Ota.

PEP CLUB

One of the greatest improvements necessary in North Andover High School is a boost in school spirit. Through the years, no organization has been created to stimulate the spirit of the student body. However, an attempt to organize a Pep Club has now been made.

This first organization of the Pep Club is but a rough draft of the achievement a united student body can make in the spirit of our various competitive teams, the numerous activities undertaken by the pupils, and above all, in improving the general atmosphere of high school life.

Much credit is to be attributed to those who organized it and its members. Our newly found Pep Club will serve as a basis for future ideas and a similar organization.

Sports

FOOTBALL

Although the North Andover football squad was unfortunate this year in losing the greater percentage of its games, the squad overcame its severe lack of depth to win a gratifying victory over Methuen.

The victory over Methuen built up the Knights' morale greatly. This victory meant that one-half of the Little Three title had been won. The other half was unfortunately lost to Andover in a hard fought battle.

Throughout the season the team worked as one. Each man did his job and did it well, but there was one flaw, the goal line. It seems that if the field had been 90 yards long, the season would have been a great success. Every time pay-dirt was almost reached, an unexplainable misfortune would occur and the ball would be lost.

Guided by Coach Robert Sullivan, the team gained much needed experience and know-how. This was his first losing season here.

In the Andover game, our most valuable lineman, Fred Stewart, was lost because of a head injury. Doug Ramsden and Ron Wedge, our co-captains, were also our halfbacks. These two Knights powerhoused their way through the opposition to gain valuable yardage. A newcomer on the squad was Mike Roberts. Though he lacked experience, he gained it readily, and will be a big threat to all competitors next year.

The quick speed and sharpshooting accuracy of Harry Wilkinson, our quarterback, made him one of the best quarterbacks that North Andover High School has ever had. He was selected as All-Lowell Suburban League quarterback for 1963.

BASKETBALL

Despite a sudden, unfavorable ruling by the Headmasters' Association which made it impossible for the Scarlet Knights to participate in the Tech. Tourney, the 1963-'64 basketball season was successful in many ways.

Directed by Coach Robert Licare, the Scarlet Knights won 12 and lost 6 games. While at North Andover High, Mr. Licare has yet to have a losing season.

This year's team was captained by hustling Bob Parker and Bill Robinson. Both set a fine example of determination and team play. This year's Knights had but five seniors. The rest were juniors. Getting off to a slow start, with five wins and four losses, it looked as if there would be a poor showing from North Andover.

The second half of the season was a completely different story. The Knights had to play four teams which had already beaten them by more than twelve points each. The first test came against Methuen. Methuen, with but one league loss, led most of the way, only to lose to a more determined North Andover team in the final minutes. The second test was Tewksbury, which had previously defeated the Knights by 13 points. With one minute remaining in the game, North Andover was down by four. A clutch shot by senior Bob Marcinuk, with three seconds remaining, won the game. The other two games, one with Chelmsford and the other with Andover, were both lost. However, Andover, a team which, in the first game of the season won over N. A. 68-46, crept away in the rematch 48-40 in the final minutes.

This basketball season was highlighted in the eighth game of the season when the often hot-handed Knights defeated Wilmington 100-56. This year's team scored 90 or more points four times and averaged 68 points per game.

Despite not qualifying for the Tech, The Knights represented their school well. Cheered on by capacity crowds on Friday nights, the Scarlet Knights gave their all for the faithful followers.

Finishing in third place in the Lowell Suburban League, and tying for second in the Little Three, the team can feel proud. They did a fine job.

Back row: Howard Crozier (Coach), Richard Bevins, David Richie, Stephen Guerrera, Eric Lindfors, Joseph Buchonis, Clifford McCarthy, William Fournier, Frank Smith, John Powers (Manager). First row: Thomas Licciardello, James

WRESTLING

The wrestling team, under the direction of Mr. Howard Crozier, enjoyed a successful sixth season. At the start, with the loss through graduation of so many veteran wrestlers, Coach Crozier was concerned about the coming season, with two dual meets a week programmed—a very strenuous schedule. When the season had ended, however, the record had been a satisfying one, with nine victories in eighteen dual meets.

The team was captained by Jimmy Powers, who is in his fourth year of wrestling. Last year, Jimmy became the first North Andover High School wrestler to win a state championship. This year he placed second in the State Meet at Wellesley.

Invaluable members of the team were Ronald Wedge, James McAloon, and Steven Henry. Ronald Wedge was undefeated in ten dual meets. Steven Henry took first place in the Merrimack Tournament. Both Steven Henry and James McAloon placed third, in their weights, in the State Tournament. Steven will be back next year.

One of the most notable events of the season occurred when James Powers set a new pinning record in 17.5 seconds. The old record, 25 seconds, was held by James McAloon.

At the end of the season, the North Andover High School wrestling team had completed 18 dual meets, and participated in the Merrimack Valley Tournament and the State Tournament at Wellesley.

Third row: Karen Fleichman, Jane Valpey, Roberta Morse, Jacqueline Kennedy, Nancy Lanni. Second row: Sandra Brown, Sylvia Andrews, Susan Zimny, Brenda Swithenbank, Pamela

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Under the enthusiastic and capable direction and guidance of Mrs. Mildred E. Dimlich, the 1963-1964 Varsity field hockey team compiled a record of 2 wins, 5 losses, and no ties. Sylvia Andrews led the team, scoring 4 goals. Ruth Moynihan and Barbara Fisher, co-captains, and Roberta Morse backed up our forward line with fine defensive play.

The Junior Varsity played 6 games, won 0, lost 4, and 2 were scoreless ties. They show much promise for next year's team.

When field hockey candidates were called, 75 girls signed up for practice. From this group, 18 Varsity and 22 Junior Varsity players were chosen. The weather having been especially good this year, every girl was present for every practice, which was held almost every afternoon during September and October. Each girl had several opportunities to participate in the games, for it was the coach's policy to play each girl who remains loyal to the team.

Hockey is a vigorous game, with feet running and quick stopping, of changing pace and direction, with absolutely no time-outs taken during the entire period of 20 minutes. The girls must have a high physical fitness rate to participate and remain on the squad.

We shall miss greatly our graduating seniors: Gerrie Pendak, Barbara Fisher, Ruth Moynihan, Judy Abbott, Sandra Brown, Nancy Shepard, Nancy Lanni, and Brenda Swithenbank. But under the leadership of our new captains, Roberta Morse, Susan Zimny, and Sylvia Andrews, we are optimistic about the coming season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team, coached by Miss J. Haslett, played many hard fought games and emerged with an overall season's record of 8 wins and 6 losses. A winning season can largely be accredited to co-captains Mary Corello and Nancy Roberts, who combined to score over 300 points. Supported also by the strong defensive playing of Pat Stone, Ruth Moynihan, Sylvia Andrews, Susan Zimny, and many others, the varsity team conquered "Little 3" rivals, Methuen and Andover, and the alumni team.

A steadily improving junior varsity team compiled the fine record of 11 wins and 3 losses. Diane Dyer, Nancy Zimny, and Kathy Willis sparked the team to many of its victories.

Varsity co-captains for next year are Jane Valpey and Susan Zimny.
